Part 3 – Additional information

Part 3(a) – Security Awareness Training

Applicants are required to complete security awareness training prior to the issue or renewal of their airside access fob, key or gate remote. This training ensures a clear understanding of regulatory requirements while the applicant remains in the airside security zones, outlined in Part 3, Subdivision 3.3.3 of the Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005 and Essendon Airport Transport Security Program. This training must be completed and submitted with your initial application and renewed no less than once every 24 months.

Our Security Induction can be completed online at: <http://linksafe.com.au/essendonfields/>

Part 3(b) – Identification

Proof of identity is a requirement from every individual applying for airside access at Essendon Fields Airport. Supporting documents must be provided at the time of submission or no more than 3 months prior. As outlined in Part 3, Subsection 3.3.1A of the Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005, the following documents must be attached along with your application in order to be approved as an authorised person:

1. A colour copy of your current ASIC.
2. A supporting Category B identification document*, which includes:
 - i. A driver's licence issued by the Australian or a foreign government, or;
 - ii. An Australian or foreign passport.

*refer to part 6 - Security Identification of the ATSR 2005

Part 3(c) – Issue and Use requirements

1. Loss of access fob, key or gate remotes must be reported immediately to EAPL via aviationreporting@ef.com.au
2. Access fobs, keys and gate remotes remain property of EAPL and must be surrendered on expiry, change or termination of present duty, or on request from EAPL.
3. The fob or key may only be used in the course of the cardholder's approved duties in the airside security zones and does not constitute an authority to enter or remain in a security controlled area for any other purpose.
4. Access on fobs is registered for the use of the person to whom it has been issued only.
5. Incorrect use of access provisions will result in the immediate withdrawal of access privileges.
6. Applicant must remain a current red ASIC holder.
7. Applicants for airside vehicle access must hold a current Airside Driver's Authority (ADA).
8. Payment fees are not refundable once processed.

Part 3(d) – Privacy Statement

EAPL requires the information contained in this application to enable the processing of your EAPL access fob, key or gate remote. If you do not provide this information, then EAPL will not be able to process your application. The collection of this information is in compliance with:

- Division 9 – Aviation Transport Security Act 2004;
- Part 6 – Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005;
- Essendon Airport Transport Security Program, and;
- Privacy Act 1988.

Information collected in this application will be used to determine eligibility for access to certain security sensitive areas at EAPL. Your information may also be used and disclosed by EAPL for auditing purposes by EAPL or authorised third parties.

All information provided with this application will be kept in the strictest confidence and handled in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles contained in Part 3 of the Act.

You have the right to access your personal information upon reasonable notice to EAPL.

Part 4 – Payment

Payment for access applications must be made at the time of submission: no applications will be accepted without payment.

Payment will be charged for the period of current ASIC validity.
